September 14, 2015

The Raton Police Department apprehended Alan Martinez in the early morning hours of September 13, 2015. In a joint effort with the Colfax County Sheriff's office, and the New Mexico State police, Martinez was taken into custody without incident. An anonymous tip lead to the successful location and apprehension of Martinez who was arrested on various charges including multiple bench warrants, possession of a controlled substance (methamphetamine), and possession of drug paraphernalia. Merissa Mares was also arrested and charged with harboring and aiding a felon. Both subjects have been booked into the vigil Maldonado detention center.
